

INCIDENT

ROBBERY

SIDE OF BUILDING 3

On August 29, 2022, at approximately 9:52am, an unidentified perpetrator followed one of our residents from Roosevelt Avenue. The perpetrator approached the resident from behind and forcefully removed a gold chain from around his neck. The resident did not sustain any injuries and the NYC Police Department is investigating.

New York City is currently experiencing an increase in crime throughout the five boroughs. Big Six Towers is not exempt from this rise in crime. We have had an increase in catalytic converter/airbag theft as well as a surge in domestic related crime within our complex.

Big Six Towers residents and guests are reminded to be aware of their surroundings at all times.

Please avoid holding the door for people you do not know and be mindful of individuals seeking to “piggy back” after you open and walk through the door.

RESIDENTS & GUESTS SHOULD STORE THE BST DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY'S EMERGENCY NUMBER WITHIN THEIR CELLPHONES.

PLEASE REPORT SUSPICIOUS BEHAVIOR AND SUSPICIOUS INDIVIDUALS WITHIN THE BUILDINGS, WALKING THROUGHOUT THE PROPERTY & PARKING LOTS TO THE EMERGENCY LINE AT
